1. What is typically your first response to criticism?
2. Why was it reasonable for Pharaoh to ask, "Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD" (see Exodus 5:1-3).
3. Have you ever known anyone who had a similar response? Why would this be a reasonable response for them as well?
4. How are Moses' response to God in Exodus 3 and Pharaoh's response in Exodus 5 similar? How are they different?
5. Why was Pharaoh's response to gathering straw and continuing the brick quota such a hardship?
6. Why did the Israelites turn against Moses and Aaron quickly (5:19-21)? What couldn't they see?
7. What is the difference between Exodus 4:31 and Exodus 5:20-21?
8. The people of Israel persistently complained against God's will and criticized His leaders. Why do you think these are so common sins among God's people?
9. What is a good response when we encounter opposition and misunderstanding, as Moses did?
10. Have you ever responded to God as Moses did in Exodus 5:22-23?
11. Are you experiencing difficulties in how/who/where God has called you? Let's take time to pray for one another.
