Sermon Title: Hopeful: Of Inexpressible Joy

Scripture: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Date: February 2nd, 2025

Speaker Name: Justin Chandler

1. What would you consider to be the most joyful experience of your life?
2. Have you ever received an inheritance (or expect to receive one in the future)? What does Peter say about the inheritance we have received in Christ?
3. How does the inheritance we have in Christ compare to the tested genuineness of our faith? Why are these two linked together in these verses?
4. What does Peter teach us about trials we experience?
5. How does denying the trials are painful make the suffering even worse?
6. How does the fact that God controls our trials comfort us when we're going through them?
7. How does Peter say we should respond to our trials?
8. How can this response bring glory into suffering?
9. Is anything Peter says about trials helpful to you personally? If so, what? If not, why not?
10. Are you currently experiencing trials? Would you be willing to share what they are so we can take time to pray for you before we close our time together?
